

How many of our children are homeless?

There are nearly 74 million children in the United States- the combined populations of:

California

Illinois

New York

22% of children in the US live in poverty- the combined populations of:

Los Angeles

Chicago

New York City

2.5 million of these children experience homelessness each year. That's the population of Brooklyn, NY

